Listening One

Good evening, and welcome to Limited Express Number 12 to London. We'll be making short stops at Nottingham and Bellingham along the way. We apologize for our late start, but we had an engine problem. It's now been fixed, and we are 14 minutes behind schedule. However, we are sure that we will still be able to arrive in London on time. For your information, Car 9 is a dining car, serving hot and cold drinks and light meals. Car 7 is a quiet car, so please keep conversation levels down, and make sure to turn down music that you are listening to on headphones. There is no smoking allowed in any of the cars. We will be checking tickets during the trip, so please keep them in a place that's easy to see. Once again, we are sorry for any inconvenience, and we hope you enjoy your trip.

Listening Two

Good morning. We'll begin our tour by walking from the hotel to the Bryson Beach area. It's famous for its good swimming beaches and shopping. After that, we'll take a bus to Pleasant Bay. Pleasant Bay is famous because the water is clear, calm, and not too deep. Our driver will then take us for a delicious barbecue lunch, before getting on the bus again to go to the East Shore. Surfers love this area, but there are a lot of rocks in the water, and the water is too rough for swimming. After that, we'll stop off to see an old sugar farm on our way back to the hotel.

Listening Three

To celebrate Jet World Airlines' first ever flight to Tokyo today, all passengers will receive a special gift, as well as a $100 coupon that can be used on any future flight on Jet World Airlines. We'll begin boarding passengers in 30 minutes, so please enjoy free snacks and drinks in the lounge next to Gate 34 while you wait. This is how we will be boarding: All passengers needing special assistance will board at 4 o'clock. Business class passengers will board at 4:10. Passengers in rows 1 to 30 will start boarding at 4:20, and other passengers will start boarding after that. Thank you for choosing Jet World!

Listening Four

So, let me tell you about the library. The first floor has an area where you can chat with friends or work on your homework, and there are some computers to use. You can use them for the internet. The books are on the top two floors. Books on arts and languages are on the second floor, and ones on math and science are above that on the third floor. Magazines are in the basement. There are also four small meeting rooms in the basement. Anyone can use them, and they're not locked, but you need to sign up on the sheet at the main counter if you want to use them. If you have any other questions, please ask me. I'm usually sitting behind the meeting room signup sheet.

Listening Five

That's an easy question to answer. "The House on Winston Street". It has been my favorite for a long time. It's a story about three teenage sisters, Meg, Jo, and Sally. It's set in a small English town about 70 years ago, but the things they talk about, like their problems, hopes, and the people they love, all feel familiar to teenagers today. There are also so many interesting details about them on every page, so it's easy to imagine what they are like. Meg and Jo are always ready to try something new, and Jo sometimes gets both of them in danger. Sally is the shy, quiet one, and she's also the one who finally fixes their problems. She's the most similar to me, so she's my favorite character.
